

WAIVER FORM

Terms and Conditions

By registering for Walk the Walk for Autism, I hereby release Walk the Walk for Autism and its organizers and waive all claims against Walk the Walk for Autism, event investors, sponsors, event sites, and personnel for any losses, damages or injury I, or any dependents in my charge, might suffer to or arising from this event, whether by their negligent act or omission or howsoever caused.

I grant full permission for the organizers to use photographs of me and quotations from me in legitimate accounts and promotions of this event.

Each participant must walk the registered course as directed by local event officials. If Walk the Walk for Autism is canceled for any other reason, registration fees may not be refunded.

I state I am of legal age, fully capable of taking part in this event, and that I do so voluntarily.

Walk the Walk for Autism organizers may amend these Terms and Conditions from time to time and any amendment will become effective immediately. My participation in Walk the Walk for Autism after amendment constitutes an agreement to abide by and be bound by those Terms and Conditions, as amended.
